

WHAT DOES A UNITED EUROPE MEAN TO YOU? – VIDEO COMPETITION

The enlargement of the EU has broken down barriers in Europe, uniting the continent around the common goals and values of its people. At the beginning, the EU was created as a project of peace and stability for the European continent. These aims have in time convinced more and more countries to join the 6 founding members. Now, the EU counts 28 Member States and its doors are open to other European countries that wish to join, and are committed to fostering peace, democracy, stability and prosperity. Albania, Bosnia and Herzegovina, the former Yugoslav Republic of Macedonia, Iceland (negotiations with Iceland have been put on hold following the decision of the Icelandic government), Kosovo^{*}, Montenegro, Serbia and Turkey are currently in the enlargement process.

The European Commission's Directorate-General responsible for enlargement is pleased to announce a video competition entitled "What does a united Europe mean to you?," which is open to young people aged 13–15 from the EU Member States as well as from the candidate countries and potential candidates in Southeast Europe.
