Job description

Junior Short Term Experts to Support

Project Demonstration Activities

This recruitment procedure is launched by the Euro Heath Group, an international consulting company implementing a European Union funded project in Serbia.

"Implementing the National Strategy Against Drug Abuse"

INSADA

The experts will contribute to delivery of the school based demonstration activities, seminars, round tables and summer schools within their specific area of expertise, as indicated in the CV.

Required profiles include: Public Health and Health Promotion Experts, Teachers, Pedagogues, Psychologists, Nurses with experience in Public Health activities, and other training experts. In addition to appropriate educational profiles and professional experience, fluency in written and spoken English is required.

Expertise: Qualifications and skills

- A professional qualification in health, and teaching experience of primary and secondary school children.
- Teachers of primary and secondary schools
- Good command of the English language including oral and written reporting abilities.
- Good command of the Serbian language including oral and written reporting abilities.
- Strong organisational and negotiation skills.

Job responsibilities will include:

- Participation in the implementation of school based demonstration activities during the project
- Coordination of initial training activities prior to the activities in 4 regional locations and 12 schools in four cities (Belgrade, Novi Sad, Nis and Kragujevac).
- Support to International/Senior Experts in relation to training and implementation
- Supervision of the local implementation activities

Job requirements will include:

- Minimum 5 years of relevant experience
- Perfect command of English language
- Computer literacy
- Good presentation and communication skills

Please forward your CV in English (EU template), and the cover letter to the following address

verica.jovanovic@insada.org

Deadline for applications: 16.09.2009.

Implementing the National Strategy Against Drug Abuse
A Project funded by the European Union