

Job description

Senior Short Term Experts to

Support Project Demonstration Activities

This recruitment procedure is launched by the Euro Heath Group, an international consulting company implementing a European Union funded project in Serbia.

“Implementing the National Strategy Against Drug Abuse”

INSADA

The experts will contribute to delivery of the school based demonstration activities in round tables or summer schools within a specific area of expertise, as indicated in the CV.

Required profiles include: Public Health and Health Promotion Experts, General Practitioners, Paediatricians, Teachers and Training experts. In addition to appropriate educational profiles and professional experience, fluency in written and spoken English is required.

Expertise: Qualifications and skills

- A professional qualification in health, such as a medical degree or specialisation in general medicine, social medicine, paediatrics, psychologists, pedagogues, or similar expertise, with a minimum of 10 years experience in the field.
- Good command of the English language including oral and written reporting abilities.
- Good command of the Serbian language including oral and written reporting abilities.
- Strong organisational and negotiation skills.

Job responsibilities will include:

- Participate in the development of training curricula and in the training plan implementation
- Support to the Project Health Promotion Experts in development, implementation and evaluation of activities
- Coordination of initial training project activities
- Supervision of training local implementation activities within 4 cities (Belgrade, Novi Sad, Nis and Kragujevac).

Job requirements will include:

- Minimum 10 years of relevant experience
- Computer literacy
- Good presentation and communication skills

Please forward your CV in English (EU template), and the cover letter to the following address

verica.jovanovic@insada.org

Deadline for applications: 16.09.2009.

Implementing the National Strategy Against Drug Abuse
A Project funded by the European Union